NATURE OF THE COMPLAINT

1. Ms. Johnson brings a cause of action under federal law, specifically the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.

2. Ms. Johnson brings this action against Randstad General Partner (US) LLC, a Delaware corporation, for failure and refusal to pay her overtime pay for hours worked over forty hours in a work week, in direct violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.

3. Ms. Johnson seeks declaratory relief; overtime pay at time and a half of her normal rate of pay for all overtime work required, suffered, or permitted by Defendant as required under the FLSA; liquidated and/or other damages as permitted by applicable law; and attorney’s fees, costs, and expenses incurred in this action.

5. Defendant’s practices and policies are, and have been since at least January 16, 2017, to willfully fail and refuse to pay overtime compensation due and owing to Ms. Johnson and to willfully fail to compensate Ms. Johnson for all hours worked while employed by Defendant.

6. Defendant instituted and carried out an unlawful policy and practice of refusing to pay Ms. Johnson for all time worked and refusing to pay her overtime for all hours worked in any given work week over forty, notwithstanding that she was a non-exempt employee entitled to overtime pay under the FLSA.

7. Since at least January 16, 2017 until December 7, 2019, Ms. Johnson worked overtime hours without proper compensation.

8. Upon information and belief, Defendant continues its illegal practices towards current and existing employees.

PARTIES

9. Ms. Johnson is a resident of Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee.

10. At all relevant times, Ms. Johnson was an employee of Defendant for FLSA purposes.

11. Defendant Randstad General Partner (US) LLC is a Delaware corporation and may be reached for service through its registered agent, Corporation Service Company, 2908 Poston Ave., Nashville, TN 37203-1312.

12. Defendant was Ms. Johnson's employer at all times pertinent to this complaint.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This action for damages is brought pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. This Court has federal question subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §§ 216(b) and 217.

14. Defendant is a legal entity and has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of Tennessee such that they are subject to service of process in Tennessee. Therefore, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant.

15. Defendant does business in the Western Division of Tennessee. Furthermore, a substantial part of the events giving rise to Ms. Johnson's claims occurred in the Western District of Tennessee. Thus, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), venue for this action properly lies in the Western District of Tennessee.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

16. Defendant employed Ms. Johnson from approximately March 2, 2012 until December 7, 2018.

17. Ms. Johnson was originally hired as a temporary worker.

18. On or about May 2017, Ms. Johnson was given permanent employee status with the title of Site Coordinator.

19. The position of Site Coordinator was and is a non-exempt position under the FLSA.

20. Although Site Coordinator was a non-exempt position, Defendant, with some rare exceptions, did not pay Ms. Johnson for the hours she worked over forty in a work week, contrary to the overtime provisions of the FLSA.

21. Ms. Johnson worked more than forty hours in virtually every week that she worked for Defendant.

COUNT I
VIOLATION OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

22. Ms. Johnson re-alleges and incorporates herein the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 18 as if they were set forth fully herein.

23. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant has been, and continues to be, an “employer” engaged in the interstate “commerce” and/or in the production of “goods” for “commerce” within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203.

24. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant has employed and/or continues to employ “employee[s],” such as Ms. Johnson.

25. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant has had gross operating revenues in excess of $500,000.

26. The FLSA requires each covered employer, such as Defendant, to compensate all non-exempt employees for all hours worked at an hourly rate and compensate all non-exempt employees at a rate of not less than one and one-half the regular rate of pay for work performed in excess of forty hours in a work week.

27. Ms. Johnson is not, during the entirety of her employment with Defendant, exempt from the right to receive overtime pay or to be paid for all hours worked over forty under the FLSA and was thus entitled to be paid compensation for all hours worked and was entitled to be paid overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

28. As a result of Defendant's failure to compensate Ms. Johnson for all hours worked and failure to compensate her at a rate of not less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all work performed in excess of forty hours in a work week, Defendant has violated, and continues to violate, the FLSA, including 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1) and § 206(a).

29. The foregoing conduct, as alleged, constitutes a willful violation of the FLSA within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for relief as follows:

1. A declaratory judgment that the practices complained of herein are unlawful under the FLSA;
2. Pre-Judgment interest, as provided by law;
3. An award of money damages for unpaid wages, including liquidated damages, in an exact amount to be determined at trial;
4. Award of money to Ms. Johnson for costs and expenses of this action incurred herein, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expert fees; and

5. Any and all such other and further legal and equitable relief as this Court deems necessary, just, and proper.
